II. Administrative notes:

Brian reminded everyone to sign the attendance roster; he explained the email addresses on the roster is used to forward a post-meeting / cross-training digital evaluation.

There was discussion about a different display of collaborative partners at the Website. Brian asked whether the participants would rather see a listing with a brief narrative more consistent with the listing for the core partners. That question will be posed on the post-meeting evaluation.

III. Partner Updates and old business

Brian announced that Comfort Keepers – Lancaster had become the 25th collaborative partner of the Lancaster County LINK to Aging and Disability Resources. Brian said owner William Engard expressed his regrets about being unable to attend today's meeting.

He asked the meeting participants to refer to the Website for further information and to keep apprised of changes and news items.

He explained the concept of the LINK's "community initiatives and special projects" and asked the collaborative and prospective partners to look into their spectrums and suggest meaningful ideas that the Lancaster County LINK might consider for project and financial support.

IV. Cross-training presentation

Marvin Inscore, owner of MD@HOME a Lancaster County LINK collaborative partner. Marvin introduced meeting attendees to the founding principles of MD@HOME and shared the operating principles of his business. MD@HOME dispatches "licensed & insured physicians who specialize in family practice and/or geriatric care" to provide "house calls" for persons defined under "Medicare's Home Bound Status."

The presenter provided brochures and entertained questions following the presentation.

V. New Business

The December meeting cross-training program will be an information sharing presentation by collaborative partner, Visiting Angels; the next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, December 20 beginning at 1:00 PM. The meeting will be held at Lancashire Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, 2829 Lititz Pike, Lancaster, PA 17601.
